REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
2. In the amendment filed 10/2/2008, previously-allowed claim 15 is the only independent claim remaining in the case. Claim 15 was previously allowed in the Office Action mailed August 27, 2008.

U.S. Pat. No. 5,692,292 to Asai et al. and JP 4-123493 (JP '493) are considered to be representative of the closest prior art of record to the present invention as set forth in independent claim 15. A detailed explanation of these references can be found in the Office Action mailed March 18, 2008, particularly in pages 4-8 thereof.

Applicant's assertions (with respect to present claim 15 re the Asai et al. and JP '493 references) that are found on page 12 of the response filed May 28, 2008 were persuasive.

Specifically, neither Asai nor JP '493, alone or in any reasonable combination, teaches or suggests the steps of "automatically transferring, with the transferring head of said at least one operation performing apparatus, said at least one second constituent element from the element carrier plate to the element stocker of said at least one operation performing apparatus, and automatically replacing said at least one first constituent element held by said at least one apparatus-side element-holding portion of said at least one operation performing apparatus, with said at least one second constituent element transferred to the element stocker" as set forth in independent claim 15, as detailed on page 12 of Applicant's response filed May 28, 2008.

The aforedescribed prior art being representative of the closest prior art of record, for at least the foregoing reasoning, the prior art of record neither anticipates nor renders obvious the present invention as set forth in independent claim 15.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
